"The Healing Place of Wake County has provided three hundred thousand beds of service to homeless men," Dennis Parnell, executive director of The Healing Place of Wake County announced today.

Since opening in Jan. 2001, The Healing Place has helped more than 4000 different individuals a safe, clean place where they worked on regaining sobriety and returning to a productive life.

Since opening in Jan. 2006, the women's facility of The Healing Place has provided more than 10,000 beds of service to more than 400 different individuals.

The women's facility has been so successful that ten additional beds have been added to the program, growing from 88 to 98 clients that can be served.
